

Friday, July 8: Philosophy of Technology: from scribal to print culture
Philosophy of Religion: the Reformation and the rise of electronic culture

Week Two: Virtual life

Monday, July 11: Philosophy of Technology: from text to hypertext.
Rdg: "Reading Hypertext: Coherence and Order in a New Medium" by John Slatin
Philosophy of Religion: Actant Network approach to religion
Rdg: "Thou Shalt Not Freeze-Frame: How Not to Misunderstand the Science and Religion Debate," by Bruno Latour

Afternoon Presentation: On line education in third world contexts.
Mary McFarland: director of Jesuit Commons bringing on line Education to refugee camps.

Tuesday, July 12: Philosophy of Technology: Phenomenology and Science in the early twentieth century
Rdg: "The Crisis in the European Sciences," by Edmund Husserl
Philosophy of Religion: Ihde: the phenomenology of technology

Wednesday, July 13: Philosophy of Technology: The World as hypertext

Philosophy of Religion: Enhancement Technologies
Rdg: "The Problem with Perfection" by Michael Sandel

Evening Documentary: "Transcendent Man: The Life and Thought of Raymond Kurzweil"
Rdg: "The Transhumanist Manifesto" by Simon Young

Thursday, July 14: Philosophy of Technology: discussion of transhumanism
Philosophy of Religion: Transcendence: Technological and Religious Rdg: "Contingency and Grace" by Albert Borgmann
"Technology and Transcendence" by Peter-Paul Veerbeek

Friday, July 15: Philosophy of Religion Virtual Immortality

“Engineering Immortality: Radical Life Extension and its Critics”
by Tim Clancy SJ
“Eternal Youth” by Ryan Francis, digital native

Philosophy of Technology: robot ethics

Week Three: Critiques of Contemporary Technology and Religion:

Monday, July 18: Philosophy of technology: life on line/the virtual self

Philosophy of religion: virtual theology

Tuesday, Jul 19 Philosophy of Technology: Heidegger’s Phenomenology of Technology
Rdg: “The Question Concerning Technology”

Philosophy of Religion: Calculative vs Contemplative Thought
Rdg: “Memorial Address,”

Wednesday , July 20: Philosophy of Technology: Borgmann and Berry
Borgmann: “The Device Paradigm”

Berry: “The Whole Horse”
“Why I am not Buying a Computer”

Evening film: Up in the Air

Thursday, July 21: Philosophy of Religion: Graphic art
Rdg from Roisin.

Philosophy of Technology: Up in the Air discussion

Afternoon session:

Experiencing and exploring virtual resources for ritual in virtual and augmented realities.

Friday, July 22: Philosophy of Religion: online ritual
Rdg by Antonio Spadaro, “Liturgy, Sacraments and Virtual Presence”
Rdg by Rachel Wagner “The Games we Pray”

Week Four:

Monday July 25:

Philosophy of Religion Teilhard's vision
Rdg: selection from The Divine Milieu

Philosophy of Technology: Pope Francis' critique of contemporary Technology
Rdg: chapter 3 of Laudato Si

Tuesday July 26

Presentations:
Matt Yimm SJ, Circles and Lines
Francis Nguyen SJ, The Limitations of Design
Robert McDonald, Matrimony, Physics and the Law
Davy Nguyen

Wednesday:

Presentations:
Evaristus Ekwueme SJ, Understanding the Virus in the Network
Francis XU SJ, Encountering You in the Street
Trevor Rainwater SJ, Virtual Sacraments
Nopparut Ruankool SJ (Bee), The Political Public Sphere and Social Media

Thursday, July 28:

Presentations:
Joe Israel SJ, Millennials and Multiple Identities
Pierre Luhata SJ, The Virtual Age as a New Frontier
Jennifer McCutchen
Gino Maroni

Friday, July 29:

Review: What are you taking with you? Where do we go from here?